Dick Davis, member of the New Castle Lions club, is one of those selling The News on the street today in the Lions "newsboy campaign". The New Castle News is being sold to increase the Lions' funds to aid in their work among the blind. As each person purchases a paper from these crown newsboys, they will receive no change. All additional money gained will be considered a donation and will be added to that made on the actual purchase price of the paper.

U.N. Troops Confronted With Guerrilla Tricks

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, Nov. 14.—The Chinese and North Korean Communists are using every guerrilla trick in the book to ambush or surprise United Nations troops both at the front and in the rear areas.

Well organized, trained and disciplined Red bands employ old artifices such as phony surrender to beguile UN troops and new one like the tank decoy to lure fighter planes into valley anti-aircraft traps.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Tokyo Headquarters spokesman declared late Tuesday that in the past week the enemy has resorted to the following tricks:

Signs of the time. Heavy topcoats, steaming automobiles, chimneys smoking and talk of All-Americans. Also, road maps showing the route to Florida.

The gasoline cowboys are making hay-hey on the new stretch of 422 from the city line east. It isn't open yet but the gasolunatics are trying for speed records already. It is said.

It's sauerkraut time. Late cabbage is just right now for the earthy delicacy and the sound of kraut cutters is heard throughout the land.

"Paper, Mister?" The newsboys on the downtown streets today are a bit older than usual but they're hustling in a good cause. The Lions club men are selling The News for their charity fund. And remember, no change.

With Christmas but six weeks away, local postal authorities are stocking up on two cent stamps which will be used by residents on mailing Christmas cards. Residents would be wise now to check up on Aunt Mary's or Cousin's John's. (Continued on Page Sixteen)

Lions Selling News Today For Welfare Work

Club Members Turn Newsies To Help Blind

"Funds for Others," will be the theme of the Lions Club members this afternoon as they turn newsboys for the day, and are selling copies of The News on the streets and in the public buildings for their work among the sightless of the county, in addition to their many other charitable activities.

The idea has been tried successfully in Erie, Oil City, and in other communities, where it has proven popular with the residents of these communities.

Heavy Loss In Fire At Early Morning Hour

Seven Families Are Rescued As Boy Is Overcome

Damage estimated at $50,000 by Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink resulted from a fire discovered at 2:28 a.m. today in the rear of the Coney Island Restaurant at 122 West Washington street and endangered the lives of seven families who resided in the apartments above the restaurant and adjoining places of business.

One youth, Jesse Horton, aged 13 years, of 124½ West Washington street, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital recovering from the effect of inhaling the dense smoke.

Serious Blaze
When firemen arrived at the scene in response to an alarm from Box 115, a serious blaze was indicated and a second alarm was turned in, summoning six companies to the blaze. Ladders were placed at the front and rear windows and the residents of the apartments were brought to safety, scantily clad.

The Horton boy was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where it was reported today that his condition was good.

The entire second floor above the Coney Island restaurant at 122 West Washington street was gutted by the blaze, which started in the rear of the restaurant and had worked its way to the roof by the time firemen arrived at the scene. They did a splendid job in containing most of the fire to this area, although considerable damage was done by smoke and water to the restaurant below and to the adjoining apartments.

Find 58 Dead In Wreckage Of Big Plane

Chartered Canadian Plane Crashes In High Alps Monday

GRENOBLE, France, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Rescue squads reached the wreckage today of a chartered Canadian "pilgrim" plane that crashed in the high Alps yesterday and reported all 58 persons aboard were killed.

Holy Year Pilgrims
The plane, en route to Paris, was returning from Rome with Holy Year pilgrims. Among them were a number of priests, including Monsignor J. Alderville Bureau, former dean of the faculty of canonical law at Laval university, Quebec.

The ill-fated craft, a DC-4 of the Curtiss-Reid Line, carried 51 passengers and seven crew members. The latter all were Canadians.

Prominent among the passengers was Onesime Gagnon, minister of finance of the Province of Quebec. One passenger was reported to be an Italian-American, Joseph Butera, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Lt. Col. Carlos Delgado Chalbaud

CARACAS, Venezuela, Nov. 14—(INS)—Strict regulations amounting to virtual martial law were put into effect throughout Venezuela today following the assassination of Lieut. Col. Carlos Delgado Chalbaud, president of the three-man ruling Junta.

The remaining leaders of the ruling triumvirate suspended all constitutional guarantees in a move to prevent any actions which might disturb public order.

The government radio and the U. S. Embassy in Caracas said the leader of the group of assassins who took the life of Col. Delgado was identified as Rafael Simon Urbina, a general who revolted against the regime of Dictator Juan Vincent Gomez in the late 20s.

A Venezuelan radio broadcast picked up in Bogota said that Simon Urbina and 20 other persons suspected of complicity in the plot against Col. Delgado have been arrested.

Four in Shooting

Three other men were reported with Simon Urbina when the Junta president was seized from his automobile yesterday, taken to the outskirts of Caracas and shot.

(Venezuelans in New York said that Simon Urbina had been close to Communist Leader Gustavo Machado when he attempted his earlier revolt. These sources added that the yhad, little knowledge, however, of any of Simon Urbina's present connections with political or labor groups.)

Wife Of 'Bugs' Baer Is Taken By Death

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Mrs. Arthur "Bugs" Baer, who had dedicated the past five years of her "borrowed time" to a ceaseless and magnificent fund-raising effort to combat heart disease, died of the malady early today.

Louise Baer, a former Folies girl who had married the celebrated humorist and settled down to a life of wife and mother, was stricken shortly before midnight Sunday.

The lovely lady never emerged from unconsciousness, and her physician, Dr. Charles Wheeler said death came at 2:30 a. m. Her death ended a bedside vigil at the family's Park avenue apartment kept by her husband, their son Arthur, Jr., and their daughter, Arthura.

U.S. Asks Speed In Action On Red Invasion

Wants Security Council Members To Act At Once

By PIERRE J. HUSS

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 14.—The United States today asked for another Security Council meeting to deal with Communist China's military intervention against U. N. forces in Korea without waiting for the arrival of the nine-member Peiping delegation.

The council meets tomorrow or Thursday, depending on arrangements for a scheduled plenary session at Flushing Meadow of the General Assembly.

Private consultations between Security Council President Ales Bebler of Yugoslavia and Communist Leader Mao Tse-tung's delegates are likely to iron out the question of the group's attendance at sessions dealing with Red China's intervention in Korea.

They have instructions to attend only council meetings on Red China's complaint that the U. S. committed aggression in ordering its Seventh Fleet to safeguard Formosa against invasion. The United (Continued on Page Sixteen)

Truman Not Likely To Call Congress Early

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—President Truman is expected to make a definite announcement this week that he will not call the lame duck congress into session before its planned meeting on November 27.

Administration sources said today that Mr. Truman will announce his decision rather than just let it become obvious by inaction over the passage of time.

France Would Participate In Big Four Parley

But Schuman Wants Proof Of Soviet Sincerity First

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager, I. N. S.)

PARIS, Nov. 14.—French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman will tell Russia today that France is willing to participate in a big four conference but first wants proof of Soviet sincerity in seeking an agreement on Germany and other major problems.

Schuman's reply to the recent proposal that a big four parley be held will be made in a speech to the French National Assembly late this afternoon.

Not Acceptable
International News Service is able to disclose that Schuman will make it clear that the recent Prague declaration is not acceptable as a basis for discussion on a conference level and that any big four talks must include other problems still awaiting settlement especially the issue of Austria.

The Russians, through the means of a communiqué session at Prague proposed that the United States, Britain and France meet with Russia (Continued on Page Two)

Nearly Million Dollars In Christmas Savings Funds

Just a little short of one million dollars cold cash will be turned loose in New Castle and Lawrence county within the next two weeks.

Christmas Savings funds totaling $25,000 will be sent out by three banks in time to turn the money into Christmas shopping channels. The division of the $925,000 follows:

Lawrence Savings and Trust Company, $450,000.
First Federal Savings and Loan Association, $250,000.
Peoples' Bank of New Castle, $225,000.

Highest of All
The Christmas Savings total is thought to be the highest ever deposited in New Castle. It averages little less than $20 per capita for the City of New Castle, although some of the savings are from people in the country outside of New Castle.

That sum, $925,000 will buy a lot of neckties and nylons and refrigerators and television sets. It will also buy a lot of automobiles, ash trays and pickled onions.

Converted into one dollar bills that $925,000 would make a path of "frogskins" from the Public Square into downtown Cleveland. And how would you like to walk that path in your bare feet?

So there it is, $925,000 being readied for Uncle Sam to drop a chunk of it at your home between now and December 2. And the postman won't have to ring twice.

Second Covered Bridge Will Go

State Will Replace Bridge Near Fayette

Highway modernization will mean the removal of another of Lawrence County's widely-known covered bridges, located in Wilmington Township. It was announced today. The bridge will be the second announced for removal and replacement over the past few days.

According to Alfred A. Martin, County Highway Superintendent, the second structure which will be replaced is located on Legislative Route 37041, in Wilmington Township leading to the village of Fayette over the Little Neshannock Creek.

To Change Crossing
The covered bridge lies close to the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad and application has been made to the Public Utility Commission for alteration of the crossing so that a new grade can be established and the bridge erected. When permission is granted, bids will be advertised for the work.

The bridge to be replaced is in close proximity to the one announced for removal on Saturday near Wilmington Junction on Route 956. Both structures have been in a bad state of repairs and only limited traffic has been permitted over them.

Only Three To Remain
When the two bridges are replaced, only three other like structures will remain in Lawrence County and these will be on the replacement list shortly by the Highway Department. Two of these structures are located near Princeton, over the Slippery Rock Creek, and the third is in North Beaver Township over Hickory Creek.

Lawrence County at one time, had numerous covered bridges but the ravages of time have caused the bridges to be replaced by more modern and permanent structures.

Rent Control Extension Is To Be Sought

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The administration plans today to press for extension of the rent control law beyond Dec. 31, despite a prediction by Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, that nothing will be done before next year.

A reliable Capitol Hill source said that although President Truman has little hope of getting a long-term rent bill through the "lame duck" congress to meet this month, pressure will be applied for a resolution extending the present law at least 60 days.

Under the present law, federal rent controls will die Dec. 31 unless individual communities ask the government to continue them for another six months.

So far, of the approximately 2,700 communities in which 28 million people are living under rent ceilings, only 600 have asked for the six-month extension.

Sudden Drop In Temperature On Korea Front

U.N. Forces Make Some Advances In Bitter Cold Winds

By IRVING R. LEVINE
(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

SEOUL, Nov. 15.—(Wednesday)—United Nations forces, hampered by bitterly cold winds from Siberia, ground out advances of four miles in northwest Korea Tuesday where some 90,000 opposing Chinese Red soldiers were entrenched.

Fighting in near zero weather, American troops in the northeast reached the vital Pujon reservoir today and sent spearheads to within 25 air miles of the Manchurian frontier.

High overhead, Red jet fighters from Manchuria damaged two B-29s, inflicting casualties aboard the Superforts in a whirling battle with the bombers and escorting American jets.

Stubborn Resistance
In the First Corps area one regiment of the Second American Division advanced against stubborn enemy resistance for undetermined gains. South Koreans in the Second ROK (Republic of Korea) Corps area also reported slow advances against "fairly stiff opposition."

But the weather was almost as important a factor as the Communists to the commanders in the field. Sudden drops in temperature as much as 20 degrees in 24 hours caught many U. N. elements unprepared with winter clothing.

While G. I.'s shivered in light summer battle dress, organizational officers were speeding the issue of heavy winter fighting dress to frontline troops.

Report Tibet Fighting Ends

Agreement Said To Have Been Reached

NEW DELHI, Nov. 14.—(INS)—A spokesman for the Indian government said today the Tibet and Communist China have reached an agreement and fighting has ceased in the Asiatic mountain land.

A dispatch from Kalimpong, on the Indian-Tibetan frontier, quoted the spokesman as saying: "It is all over in Tibet."

He was reported to have confirmed that Communist-led Tibetan "People's Troops" had arrived in Lhasa, capital of Tibet, with a "token force" of Chinese Communists.

It was added that there had been no clashes between Tibetan government troops and Chinese forces "for several days."

Earlier frontier reports said that Chinese Communists in Lhasa had obtained acceptance of demands by the Peiping government for control of Tibet's defenses, foreign affairs and communications. Under the agreement, the Chinese reportedly halted invasion hostilities.

The agreement also is supposed to provide that there will be no interference by Communist China in Tibet's internal administration.

To remind Russians said that the French foreign minister is likely to remind the Russians that when the big four conference in Paris in 1949 ended a virtual agreement on Austria was complete but that nevertheless, no pact has been concluded to date.

Schuman is expected to emphasize further that any big four conference must be carefully prepared in advance before the principals sit down for decisive discussions. These sources added that the chief significance of Schuman's speech is the French government's desire to show a more conciliatory attitude to the Soviet proposal than will be possible in the forthcoming concerted diplomatic replies by the big three because of alleged Anglo-American stiffness.

Then the Reds knock out the lead and rear vehicles, blocking the road and trapping the other vehicles. Automatic fire then exposes the vehicles and explosive charges are used against tanks.

2. Small groups of enemy troops in hilltop positions expose themselves, drawing fire which permits other Red troops to spot UN forces and flank them.

3. Well-trained Reds are assigned to special jobs of infiltrating UN lines with refugees to block roads or commit sabotage.

4. During an attack eight to ten Reds raise their arms, signifying surrender, and when UN forces lift their fire the Communists in company strength attack from concealed positions.

5. Groups of 50 or more Red soldiers hurl themselves in "manned" attacks against the UN lines to draw fire, permitting fairly large-scale flanking attacks while the UN troops are concentrating their fire on the wildly attacking Reds in front of them.

6. The Chinese use particularly good camouflage techniques to hide tanks emplaced at roadsides for surprise attacks on advancing UN troops.

7. The enemy puts a shiny new tank in an exposed position in a valley as a decoy for UN fighters which are subjected to intense anti-aircraft fire from the surrounding hills when the fighters dive to attack the tank.

8. Disguised enemy groups, wearing armbands of South Korean anti-Communist security guards, work their way into UN lines and then open fire from the rear.

These same leaders—and those on the Republican side as well—do not look for enactment of any major bills in the three weeks the present congress will spend in session starting Nov. 27.

WARNING

Well it seems that City Council is having quite a time to decide where taxes are to come from this coming year. We thought at one time that the parking meters and the wage tax would settle all troubles as far as taxes went, but it seems not. Then, with no attempt to retain taxpayers in our City, does not help the matter any. Most cities give inducements to get taxpayers to locate therein, but it seems New Castle does the opposite.

We inspected our new property today, and will be glad when we can get located where we will have room that we can call our own, and make it possible for our customers to be able to park, and also make it possible for us to treat our customers as we like to treat them.

Machinery and work of the United Nations were discussed by Mrs. Creighton, who also explained some of the sessions of the committees which she attended in October, which dealt with the Korean situation.

It was her hope that all citizens give their full, wholehearted support to the U. N., for it is the only place where people from all over the world can sit down and discuss their mutual problems.

The guest speaker illustrated her talk with interesting charts and maps. A discussion period followed the report by Mrs. Creighton.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY NATIONAL PROBLEM

J. Edgar Hoover has warned that "the unhealthy high rate of juvenile delinquency will increase if the people of this nation regard this problem with apathy and indifference."

The FBI director made this observation in a letter to the Senate Crime Investigating Committee, in which he declared that in the last 10 years "youth has led the criminal army of the United States." For instance, arrests of boys and girls under 21 were three per cent higher in 1949 than in 1945.

The persistence of this trend in recent years, with the prospect that juvenile crime will continue to rise, presents a problem of such dimensions that the American people must act to overcome it.

Director Hoover, characteristically, does not merely state the appalling facts, but suggests a number of reasons behind what he feels is the basic cause of juvenile delinquency: "the lack of sense of moral responsibility among youth."

The FBI chief appropriately emphasizes that the place to start to develop a new sense of moral responsibility among young people is in the home—he names broken homes as a big factor in juvenile delinquency, but promptly adds lack of religion as another of prime importance. In addition he mentions "improperly directed group activities, lack of guidance for leisure time activities, inadequate school systems which fail to properly educate the child and fail to provide for proper guidance and vocational training."

Throughout the country there is a need for the mobilization of community sentiment and influence to make the home, the church, the schools and "youth-serving organizations" the powerful agencies they should be, and must be, if the present shameful increase of juvenile delinquency in America is to be reversed.

A TRADITION TREMBLING?

The Senate may have to—in self protection—scrap a long-standing tradition and allow members to put prepared speeches into the "Congressional Record" as if they had been read.

The House has long followed this practice, but the Senate, with its smaller membership and more dignified approach, has steadfastly insisted that the only words to go into the body of the record are spoken words.

As a result of this rule, the Senate was in session 1,159 hours this year—with more to come in the "lame duck" session beginning November 28. The senators met an average of 6.4 hours a day.

Much of the time was taken up by senators "talking for the record"—making speeches to a virtually empty chamber in order to get them printed so they can be distributed to constituents back home.

Only once was the tradition against inserting unread speeches in the body of the Record broken. Then Senator Frank P. Graham (D), North Carolina, caught the parliamentary off-guard during the rush of the closing days and secured permission to put his speech in the record "as if delivered."

So far this session, Congress has used 31,304 pages in the "Congressional Record, plus 7,734 in the appendix, to establish itself as the "windiest."

Figures like these have convinced congressional aides that something must be done about the Senate rule, and they will take it up with the leaders when the political turmoil of election is over.

IS TITO ON THE LEVEL

The Communist dictator of Yugoslavia has been talking like a Christian lately, and he has even shown some disposition to act like one. Is he, though a Communist, undergoing a change of heart that will keep him a good neighbor and a benevolent ruler. Or is he cynically acting to please the west in order to get American economic and financial aid, and the assurance of military support against Communist (Stalin variety) aggression?

A case could be made out for either theory. Whichever is true, the United States benefits at the moment, and our policies deserve credit for making it possible. Not much more than two years ago Tito was a "bad" Communist, and his methods were almost indistinguishable from those applied by the head office in Moscow. He committed aggressions against neighboring Greece by giving rebel forces there training, supplies, and asafe haven in Yugoslavia. He made trouble over Trieste and Austria. He took charge of Greek children kidnapped from their parents by Greek Communists. He shot down lost American planes, and persecuted churchmen. He denounced American.

Now he is a "good" Communist. He is arranging to return the Greek children to their parents, and to release (with strings attached) Archbishop Stepintz. He praises America. He speaks out against aggression in Korea and, despite his recognition of Communist China, pledges cooperation in any UN decision to label China an aggressor. He even hints that he might decide to make Yugoslav troops available to the UN. He is easing the pressure on his own people a little, to permit (with restrictions) the exercise of some slight democratic liberties previously forbidden.

The direction he is taking, moreover, is not inconsistent with the part of Communist theory that became a dead letter under Stalin—the prediction that a Communist state would pass gradually from suppression to benevolence, and finally "wither away." If he stays on that road, America can meet him half-way.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

British Secret Service In Action

One of the most romantic and most publicized organizations in the world came under unparalleled scrutiny today with the shortlisted gathering of another Communist-backed and so-called "peace congress" in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield.

It is the British secret service—first of its kind in the world—later emulated by the French national security forces and by the American undercover organization which in recent days saved President Truman from an attempt upon his life.

The new demonstration scheduled for Sheffield and suddenly detoured to Warsaw, supporting the Communist line against alleged American imperialism and stressing a professed Soviet bid for peace, placed a heavy responsibility upon Britain's "FBI."

Rejected For Entry
 Frederick Joliot-Curie, the scientist who for many years headed the French government atomic energy commission but who was ousted for his Communist affiliations, was rejected for entry into Britain upon his arrival.

Pablo Picasso, the Spanish painter who works in weird forms and who always has admitted leftist leanings, was given clearance.

But against this backdrop of clashing loyalties and opinions stood the fact that Scotland Yard and MI-5 (the British army military intelligence) were faced with the severest test of their careers.

The British press has been filled during recent weeks with slashing criticism and vitriolic cartoons lampooning the alleged deficiencies of protection against espionage.

Most Frequently Cited
 The well-known case of Dr. [Name redacted]

Dear Dr. Myers, Children's quarrels are the bane of my existence at the present time—so much so that I dread every holiday, and every week end. I know it should not be so! Here is the picture, very much simplified: We have a girl 9 years old, a boy 7 years old, and a baby boy, 6 months old. The girl and the older boy are almost constantly on each other's nerves until it seems there is no love in them for each other. I am quite sure they are not jealous of the baby, for this quarreling began long before the baby was even dreamed of, and they both adore him.

Family Life
 "Now, I want nothing so much in the whole world as I want a happy, wholesome family life for every member in our family, but somehow something has gone awry."

"We have a small but comfortable house, the children have music lessons, and frequently have friends at home to play. The children are both highly intelligent, precocious, and popular, to judge by what their teachers tell me, but more important to me, they do not get along well together. They very often come to blows, and very seldom have a whole day without tears. What can I do?"

My reply was about like this: You do not indicate what these children quarrel about. If they argue over ideas and opinions, without coming to blows, and are pretty well matched, they are deriving therefrom considerable mental and verbal ability. Perhaps they often tease or torment each other, in such case one may more often be the aggressor and need some parental restraint. (It's a safe guess that the youngest, and most popular, perhaps, they argue over their personal possessions and home duties and responsibilities. It might help if you required each one to be very respectful of the other's ownership and that their home chores be definite and rarely overlap.)

Recognize the wide difference in their ages, allowing more freedom in the older, and letting her go to bed about half an hour later than her brother does because he is younger and needs more sleep.

Friends Drop In
 Perhaps some quarrels arise when the brother eavesdrops on the sister's secrets or proves a nuisance when her friends drop in. She and they all consider him still a baby in comparison with their great age and wisdom. See that he minds his own business then. He also needs to cultivate friends of his own age. Each of these children needs a number of normal playmates. They hardly can be with each other. (My bulletin "Quarrelling and Fighting" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N.Y.)

Discourage tattling by ignoring it. When a quarrel is on out of your sight, don't try to ascertain by conducting a trial who started it. When they come to blows or endanger the furniture or surpass your endurance, separate them for a definite period of not less than thirty minutes. But don't just get angry or scold. Do something. If you are not going to be decisive, try to be annoyed. Sometimes a sense of humor will prove powerful. Try to encourage each one to tell jokes and relate personal experiences all may enjoy.

Klaus Fuchs, the German-born and Moscow-affiliated expert of the Harwell laboratory who was sentenced to 14 years in prison for selling secrets to the Soviet Union, is the one most frequently cited.

But critics also have recalled the mysterious disappearance of Prof. Bruno Pontecorvo, who departed from a vacation in Rome for an unknown destination.

The British House of Commons has been told that this former worker at Britain's atomic laboratory is—in all probabilities—now in the Soviet Union.

Persistent efforts to trace his method of travel and his present whereabouts have proved unavailing.

Secret Agents On Guard
 As a joint result of these two cases and coincidence of the "peace meeting" in Sheffield, British secret agents are on guard to a degree that has not been equalled in many years.

All arrivals for the meeting were weeded out with the highest degree of efficiency; those attending are under constant surveillance and perhaps for the first time since Cromwell, England is an armed camp posted against subversion.

Whatever the outcome of the Sheffield meeting may be—and barring possible violence it can only embrace a heavy cannonade of Soviet fire against alleged malpractices of Wall Street and the Bank of England—one thing is sure.

This is the tightening of British security regulations on the same basis as it is being done in the United States or on an even more extended form.

"Cradle Of Liberty"
 Britain has prided itself for centuries as a "cradle of liberty." It has extended asylum to refugees in war after war. In the historic records is the fact that Napoleon Bonaparte, when reconciled to his inevitable disaster, turned to the Court of St. James for refuge and was astounded beyond belief when his pleas were turned down.

But this habitual system of refuge in the British Isles has met with its first reversal. The Sheffield assembly will be a brief, transitory, interim thing. It will meet as prepared originally but the tenure in England will be brief.

The secret agents of Scotland Yard—both emboldened and belittled during their long career—have discouraged the potential agents of espionage and infiltration.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

There seems to be some interest in the topic that we wrote about Saturday evening . . . a number of people have stopped in and hailed us on the street and said they would like to know more about this City Manager type of government. And that they (the one's we've talked with) are going to read up on the subject.

Really what we need is more interest in city, county, state and national government. Too long (many have said this before) have the people just sit back and let things come and go on the political front. Comes a time like the present time . . . for people to again become interested in what is going on in the various political set-ups. How does the council-form of government operate . . . and how would a city manager type of set-up compare?

We intend to give you facts on this idea . . . but for each and everyone to know more . . . it would be well for you individually to look up the idea . . . and with all our thinking together . . . a much clearer picture could be presented.

There are other ideas that we all could work on and do wonders for this community . . . Industrially we are fairly well set . . . Our plants are of the best and our employment is good . . . but we can do better in making our town a better place to live . . . and some of the ideas that could be worked out if the people would cooperate . . . needn't take a lot of ready cash.

From time to time we have talked about street signs . . . once placed we people are very lax in caring for them . . . children . . . and not always young ones . . . twist the signs until they can't be read. Playgrounds can be installed in various sections . . . many magazines have written articles about plans that have been successfully completed in sections throughout the land.

Yes . . . it's serious business . . . living in a community . . . but it can be business that will operate successfully if all take a part.

Recall "Good Old Days"

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

Twenty-two years ago, almost to the day, I came to New York seeking fame and fortune.

The fact that I have achieved neither does not worry me half so much as the changes that have taken place in me and old friends whose acquaintance I am renewing. Now that I am back again in New York to live.

When we meet our conversation is just about as depressing a thing as one can imagine.

Twenty-two years ago we talked of good old days in college, the location of the best speakeasy, the places where the hottest bands were playing, football and basketball games, and other things that indicated we were young, alive, and rearing to go.

We didn't have the name and address of a doctor, dentist or optician among us. The names and addresses we had—well, you can imagine.

Physical Calamities Cited
 Now—and I have noticed with horror that whenever a bunch of us get together—everything is dotted from some physical calamity that has overtaken us since we staggered into the forties.

"I haven't seen you since I had my gall bladder out, have I?" one old friend said after we had shaken hands and slyly given one another's panaches a good looking over. He then proceeded to tell me about the hospital, the doctor, the nurses, and how for a while it seemed as if he wouldn't pull through. If it hadn't been standing in the corner of Madison and having taken off his coat, hiked up his shirt, and shown me where the medics whacked him.

He seemed every bit as proud of having his gall bladder removed as he once was of telling of his tackles on the Tech varsity and what a heller he was with the Chi Omegas and Tri Deltis.

No All-Night Cafeteria Now
 When I ran across another friend of the early New York days when we barely had a nickel between us, I suggested that just for old times' sake we drop in on an all-night cafeteria we used to patronize.

We patronized it because it gave us the most generous helping of French fried potatoes. All the places we visited, and five or six extra potatoes were a great help in those days.

"I can't do it," he said, "as much as I'd like to. You see, I have been having a devil of a time with my ulcers and about all I can have is milk and codded eggs. Fried stuff would come close to killing me."

In calling up another old friend from a telephone pay station I found that the 22 years hadn't left a thing without change, either. You know how they chain down phone books in New York? Well they don't make those chains long enough for a fellow whose dimming eyesight requires that he hold the book as far off as possible. I stretched the chain as far as it would go, but all I could see was what seemed to be pages of crazy hieroglyphics, written by a chicken whose feet had been soaked in ink.

I notice, too, that nearly all of us wear double-breasted suits these days. Back in 1928 and thereabouts we didn't know clothing sales other than suits.

Another chum of yesteryear graciously volunteered to give me a note to his doctor and his dentist. "You'll be needing them," he said after a brief survey of my chassis "and they're both swell fellows. Never too busy to treat you, night or day."

Maybe I'll have to go back to Florida and the Fountain of Youth. I already feel like Methuselah with rheumatism up here in New York.

I am beginning to believe people have something when they speak of the "good old days."

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

There should be a special session of Congress . . . to sing Auld Lang Syne, if nothing else.

The way the next Senate shapes up, Harry will be lucky if he can get a bill through condemning sin.

And his paper margin in the House is so low that any Democratic member who stays home with a head cold can change the fate of the nation.

This means that a great part of the President's domestic program may be defeated in the 82nd Congress . . . as in that splendid 81st Congress.

All I know that Ewing is still going to a private physician and Brannan is still stuck with his potatoes.

Some fear that may even mean cutting down aid to Europe . . . this dread possibility also has occurred to Europe and there is even talk of Europe considering working out its own destiny.

They may even get alarmed enough to go off the dole.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

JUST LIKE A MAN
 The women folks of me declare: "His eyes and ears are everywhere. Yet strangely blind he seems to be. To things we wish that he would see."

And strangely deaf he'll appear To much we say for him to hear. "A faded dress or dowdy hat. His eyes will never notice that. 'Why don't you tell me things?' he'll shout."

Discovering news we've talked about. A party planned a week ago. He'll cry: "Why don't you let me know?"

Believe the women if we can. That is the way of every man. The things he should he never knows. Is blind to what's beneath his nose. But if it's none of his affair His eyes and ears are everywhere. (Copyright, 1950, Edgar A. Guest)

Folks Of Fame

An American political leader, Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, was born in Annapolis, Md., Sept. 19, 1737. Educated abroad, he returned to Maryland in 1765, where an estate named for his family was settled upon him. He became a patriot leader, a member of the Continental Convention, of the Maryland Senate, of the Continental Congress and one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. He outlived all the other signers. He was a member of the United States Senate from 1789 to 1792. He lived in retirement from 1801 until his death at Baltimore, Nov. 14, 1832. His signature was always followed by the name of his estate.

Political Proof Test

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—What the country needs, I guess, is a good 5-cent Political Proof Test to show you where you stand between Left and Right; and by great good luck I am about to provide one.

No pride of authorship obtains here, for the Proof Test which follows is the work of one Clarence Ergood, previously introduced in this column as my favorite barkeeper, a man as deft with a political epigram as with a martini. "A Fascist," says Clarence, just to give you an example of his slant as well as his style, "is any patriot who refuses to let himself be robbed or murdered by a Communist." He's recently tried the Proof Test on about 50 of his customers and is fully convinced of its efficiency.

Grade Yourself

Give yourself 1 point for every A answer; 2 points for every B answer. The perfect Conservative would score 24 points; the perfect Radical would score 12.

1. The basis of society is:

- (a) economic.
- (b) religious.

2. Wars are caused by:

- (a) capitalism.
- (b) defects in human nature such as lust, greed, envy, without regard to economic systems.

3. The origin of poverty is:

- (a) wealthy people's greed.
- (b) the fact that man is born naked and without possessions.

4. Inequality of wealth is:

- (a) abnormal and bad.
- (b) normal and good.

5. Inequality of earning power is:

- (a) abnormal and bad.
- (b) normal and good.

6. The continued well-being of America depends upon:

- (a) class consciousness.
- (b) class harmony.

7. An American who puts "humanity" or One World above his country is:
 - (a) a global philanthropist.
 - (b) a fool, knave and/or a traitor in his heart.

8. Man's power to choose between good and evil is:
 - (a) limited by his economic circumstances.
 - (b) not limited by the same.

9. The foundation of America's political stability is:
 - (a) personal freedom.
 - (b) social discipline exerted by his family, church, community, job.

10. Socialism or the Welfare State is an economic system which:
 - (a) insures a Fair Deal for all.
 - (b) insures rule by the few.

11. "We can spend our way into prosperity" is:
 - (a) true.
 - (b) false.

12. To live and prosper in a free society is:
 - (a) a God-given right.
 - (b) a hard-earned privilege.

Has Got Something Here
 Clarence, I think, has got something here. We have gone in big for soul-searching and thought-control these past few years. States, cities, universities and even privately-run pressure groups have devised test-oaths and launched snoop-research to discover the political coloration of people's thoughts. Under the McCarran Act the Federal government has lately begun an Operation Hawkshaw which, if wholly successful, would classify all God's chillun under three headings—Left, Right and Center. How much it will all cost in bureaucrats and comptometers, no man can say.

Among the evident virtues of Clarence's Proof Test are its economy and its exactitude. Its questionnaire is a five-cent, five-minute job. It gives a mathematical rating, rather than a general classification. My own score, I find, is C-20; A-1 with one question beyond my ken. This should put me at a safe distance from trouble under the McCarran Act, but guarantees a trip to Siberia, come the Revolution. There are other virtues to the Proof Test which should not remain unsung. It's voluntary and confidential. A man can lean on the bar and hold the mirror, as it were, up to his political nature. The reflection will show him the shape of his thoughts about current history. But the reflection won't predict how he will act or even how he will vote. There are other factors—the policeman on the corner and the candidate's personality, for example—which govern how we yield to temptation and mark our ballots. Self-knowledge is always interesting and sometimes valuable to the individual, but it's strictly of no concern to his neighbor or to his government. If we start hanging people for dangerous thoughts, there soon won't be enough of us left to pull the ropes.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

One of our proudest boasts is our "democratic" way of life.

By that we do not mean Democratic as opposed to Republican. Thank heaven and the calendar, we can forget about that for a while.

No, what we boast about is that here in our country one man is as good as another, that there are no class differences, that all have equal opportunities, that this is the great melting pot.

That, in plain, ordinary English, is a lot of hooey. We are every bit as class-conscious and as caste-conscious as the people of India.

We do not necessarily tattoo our class or caste on our forehead in different colors, but we have our princelings and our untouchables just the same.

One of the outstanding examples of the caste system is the red-plush or gold rope at the entrance to New York's most popular night clubs.

At the entrance stands the Master of the Protocol, dressed in a headwaiter's outfit, who examines each applicant for admittance. The applicant does not need a tattoo-mark on his forehead. The Master of the Protocol can tell with one look.

The Celebrity, the Tycoon, the Foreign Nobleman is admitted with a bow.

The ordinary fellow who still believes in the equality of men is frozen into nothingness with an icy stare.

I have been told, however, that there is one great equalizer—a ten dollar bill. Slipped into the Master's palm, it may quickly make a VIP (very important person) out of a Nobody.

Does all this apply only to New York or Chicago or Los Angeles or Detroit? Heavens, NO. If your community consists of 500 inhabitants there will be several strata of people, each one better or worse than the other.

Farm Roundup

More Rice To Be Produced

See New Record Since World War II

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The agriculture department forecasts that the world will produce more rice this year than any year since World War II.

The world rice crop, figured from August, 1950, through July, 1951, is forecast at 343 billion pounds of rough rice compared with 333 billion during the previous year, and 342 billion pounds two years ago.

Asia's production—representing 93 per cent of the world total—is expected to be the largest since the early forties. Europe, meanwhile, is harvesting a record crop of almost three billion pounds.

But North and South America are not following the upward trend. Decreases are noted for those two continents, while Africa is expecting just an average harvest.

The agriculture department reports that most countries producing tobacco are doing much better this year than last—probably trying to keep up with the demand. The world's tobacco harvest in the year ending in June, 1951, is forecast at seven billion, 220 million pounds, compared with last year's production of seven billion 100 million pounds, and the pre-war average of less than six billion.

The world is producing about five per cent less dry edible beans this year.

The agriculture department reports that dry edible bean production in the 1950-51 season is currently estimated at about 109 million bags—five per cent less than the 115 million bags estimated for last season in 50 major producing countries.

Employment Placement Drops Off For October

Tapering off of construction work due to the cold weather has resulted in an employment placement decrease of 111 for the month of October, the Lawrence County Employment Office announced today.

The county office placed 412 in work for the month of September, and 301 for October.

The breakdown for October placement included: two in professional-manager jobs, 37 in clerical work, 51 in services, 32 in skilled work, 11 in semi-skilled, 151 in unskilled and 17 in agricultural work.

However, there are 247 fewer applications for work on hand in the employment office for the month of October than there were for September. This drop continues to follow a trend which started last January and through October has decreased some 60 per cent.

Health Talks

CHANGE YOUR CLOTHES AND MIND

Did you ever see an old gentleman with clothes spick and span; everything clean and in perfect order but of a style long gone? As Pat says, "He is a relic of old decency."

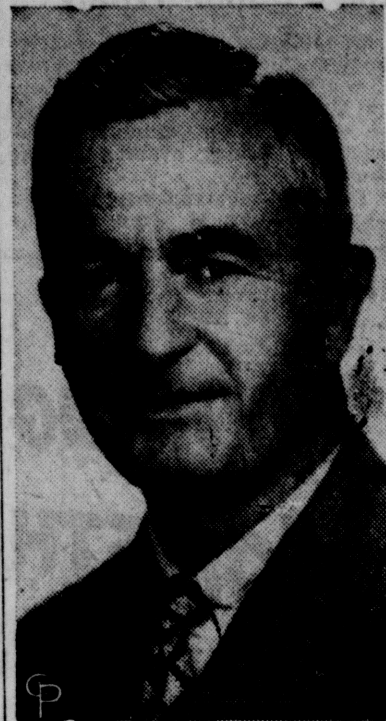

Cleanliness of the body is a must. That is the first rule for health and sanitation.

We are gradually learning a little about the mind. It seems to be just as important to keep the mind up to date as the body.

Obsolescence of the mind hinders progress just as much as trying to use an out-of-date locomotive. Age and obsolescence are not synonymous. Perhaps some one will tell us the difference.

It's Cherry's Choice

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH at the University of Texas and heading for a Cotton Bowl bid, Blair Cherry has announced he will step down at the end of the 1950 grid season and enter the oil business with his brother. Texas has lost only to Oklahoma, by one point, this year.

SHIFTY BIKES

NEW YORK.—(INS)—Junior now can operate his bicycle much like pop does the family car. This is made possible by a 3-speed gearset conversion unit which, when attached to a bike, permits the rider, without removing hands from the handle-bar grips, to shift to low, medium or high gear just as in an automobile.

L.C.U.S. Group Conducts Session

Lawrence County Union of Socialities met for its regular meeting on Sunday at 3 p. m. at St. John the Baptist hall. The president, Catherine DeSimone, was in charge of the meeting.

Opening prayer was given by the director, Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, and the hymn "Mother Beloved" was sung by the group.

Apostolic chairman, Helen Tumminella, told a story called "A Farm Boy Who Didn't Forget." Our Lady chairman, represented by Josephine Jacobs, explained the sodality emblem.

Social Life chairman, Camilla Augustine, conducted an interesting game. Publicity, Rita Felice, recited a poem, "Don't Whine" and also told a story called "If Christ Came Christmas Morning, Would Your Face Be Red?" Socialists are to attend the Day of Rec-collection at St. Joseph's church November 26, 3 to 5 p. m.

Remarks were heard from the director, Fr. Inteso; Rev. Fr. Paul Abraham, pastor of St. John's, and Rev. Fr. Bertolini of Ellwood City. Mother Superior and Sister Nicoletta of St. Vitus were present.

Closing prayer was given by Fr. Abraham and the closing hymn "For Christ the King" was sung by the group.

Refreshments were served by members of the sodality of St. John the Baptist church.

HEAVEN WAITS

LONDON.—(INS)—Sailor Harry Jackson told London magistrates that he climbed a ladder outside a house at midnight "to get to heaven." The charge was "causing wilful damage by breaking two panes of glass" at the house. The magistrates suspended sentence against Jackson for twelve months after he agreed to receive hospital treatment.

Try And Stop Me

Nunnally Johnson, a famous Hollywood producer, points out that behind every famous man there stands a woman telling him he's not so hot. Nunnally was full of beans when he made this observation because he had just won an argument with the big guns who direct Twentieth Century-Fox. They were all set on his going clear over to Africa to do the exteriors for a screen biography of Field Marshal Rommel. Nunnally persuaded them the scenes could be shot just as well within two hundred miles of Hollywood. "My slogan is what got them," says Johnson. "It was 'Patronize your neighboring deserts.'"

Dr. Blensharp, of Memphis, was called upon to patch up an old and familiar patient who complained of his usual malady—a badly carved countenance. "Cut up with a razor again, James, I see," said Dr. Blensharp. "Why don't you keep out of bad company?" "I aim to," said the patient sadly, "soon's I can afford to get me a divorce."

Chest Campaign Renews Efforts To Reach Goal

Efforts to boost the 1950 Community Chest campaign over the top are continuing, it is announced by Homer D. Choate, campaign chairman.

Money is still coming in from many of the divisions and this, together with other odds and ends, is expected to raise the total to date over the $120,000 mark.

At last week's report meeting $118,656 was the total reported, leaving nearly $9,000 to go to reach the $127,600 quota. There will be no more report meetings, it was reported at that meeting, but campaign leaders should have a figure by Thursday of this week to see just how much has been picked up.

Community Chest officials are determined that the campaign will be a success and will keep plugging away until the $127,600 total is reached, it is reported.

Four Are Accused Of Passing Phony Bills In Eight States

PORTSMOUTH, O., Nov. 14.—(INS)—Two women and two men, one of them a former township peace officer, were held today to the Federal Grand Jury on charges of passing counterfeit $10 bills in eight states.

Held under bonds of $5,000 each are Mrs. Eileen Adkins, waitress and mother of three; Mrs. Elsie Brown, 32; Lewis Judy, 42, a used car dealer, and Charles Vaughn, 51, former Scioto county constable and Rome, O., marshal.

The foursome waived preliminary hearing yesterday when they appeared before U. S. Commissioner Laurence Kimble. Accused of distributing $10,000 worth of bogus bills in Ohio, Maryland, Illinois, Kentucky, Iowa, Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee, the four will be taken to Cincinnati to face grand jury action.

Mrs. Adkins confessed her participation in the counterfeit ring last week, involving the other three. She said she was "tricked" into cashing a phony bill in Chicago and then the gang threatened to expose her if she backed out of the racket.

Judy, a former partner with Vaughn in a used furniture business in New Boston, a Portsmouth suburb, was named as the leader.

Expect 400 At New Wilmington Rotary Rodeo

New Wilmington Rotary club will present its 20th annual buck-wheat rodeo Thursday evening at 6:30 in the New Wilmington United Presbyterian church.

The rodeo, one of the biggest events of the year for district Rotarians, is expected to attract more than 400 persons from near and far. Usually at the rodeo are Rotarians from all parts of the nation.

At last year's affair, which attracted more than 400 persons, 375 pounds of sausage were consumed, 50 gallons of batter were used, 17 gallons of maple syrup poured on, and 75 gallons of coffee drank.

Mediocre appetites become huge when the rodeo is in session, it is reported, and annually an award is made to the Rotarian who can put away the most pancakes.

The New Wilmington rodeo got its start 24 years ago when "Bill" McLaughry of the New Wilmington club put on a pancake flapping exhibition in Pittsburgh.

Speaker for the program will be Rev. Laurence Hall, pastor of the All Saints Episcopal church of Portsmouth, O.

Members of the Young Women's guild of the United Presbyterian church will serve the meal.

Dr. Reid, who served as a chaplain during World War II, has been recalled by the United States government to serve again in the same capacity. The North Hill minister is to report to Fort Eustis, Va., on November 20.

Question Prisoner On His Alleged Slaying Confession

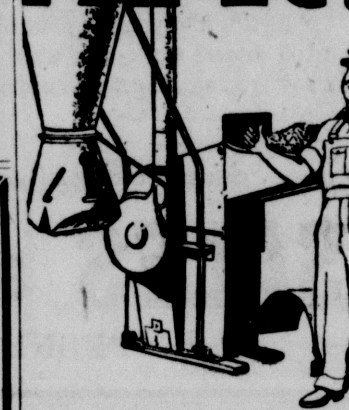

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Nov. 14.—(INS)—District Attorney Stroud Weber prepared today to question a federal prisoner on his alleged confession of the four-year-old slaying of a Pottstown divorcee.

The victim, Miriam Green, was found strangled in her apartment in December, 1946, and subsequently, Gerald C. Wentzel was adjudged guilty and sentenced to a 10-year term.

The case broke wide open again however, with the disclosure that Clarence A. Woodley, Jr., a former neighbor of the victim, had purportedly confessed the crime.

The word "tulip" comes from the same Turkish word for turban—tulbend.

Striking C.I.O. Phone Workers File Complaint

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The striking CIO Telephone Workers Union complained to the National Labor Relations Board today against strategy of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. designed to offset "hit and run" picketing.

The long lines division of the A. T. & T. refused to put back to work telephone operators who reported for work when pickets were removed but indicated they would stay away if picketing was resumed.

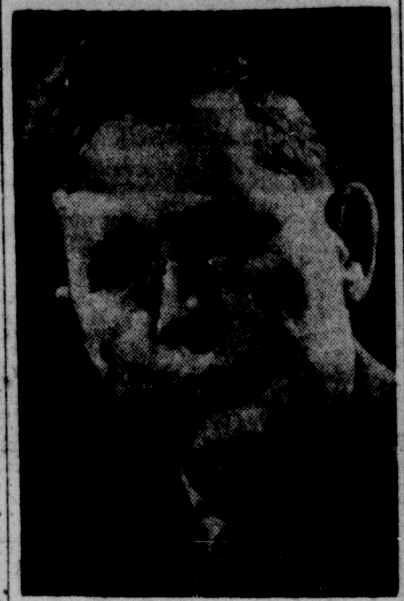

The Communications Workers of America in its charge of unfair labor practices filed with the NLRB in New York said the operators were first asked to make written and then oral pledges that would continue on the job. A spokesman for A. T. & T. said the charge was "absurd." He added that the number of operators sent home was nothing like the 10,000 alleged by the union. The company denied that it mentioned picket lines in questioning the operators and said it asked only: "Are you prepared to come to work regularly?"

Humorist To Be Heard Thursday

JUDGE HAROLD C. KESSINGER

One of the things which has been written and talked about without end, has been man's increasing mastery over gadgets and nature, and his so-called inability to cope with the things he has invented.

This explains the invitation by the directors of the New Castle Executives club to Judge Harold C. Kessinger, nationally famous orator, humorist and philosopher, who will discuss the whole range of these inventions and their use by the human race, when he speaks to the club at its monthly dinner meeting in The Castleton Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Judge Kessinger is said to be a composite of Will Rogers and Wendell Willkie, in that he has the droll humor of Will Rogers and the manner and appearance of Wendell Willkie.

McGuffey Held Great Educator

New Castle Rotary club members heard of the great contribution made by William Holmes McGuffey, pioneer resident of the New Bedford district to the education of the youth of America, when they were addressed by Hurd Tuttle, a member of the faculty at Youngstown College.

Mr. Tuttle pointed out that Mr. McGuffey's readers helped develop the reading and spelling proclivities of the youths of yesterday, and covered the field of morals and manners for young people, leading them to lives of right thinking and living.

This year, the 150th anniversary of Mr. McGuffey's birth is being observed, Mr. Tuttle pointed out, and it should have special meaning to residents of this district.

Guests of the club included Henry Bertolini, Carl Davidson, and John E. Vance.

Michigan Election For Governor Is Not As Yet Decided

DETROIT, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Democratic incumbent G. Mennen Williams today led the unofficial tabulation in Michigan's see-sawing gubernatorial race for the fifth time since election day.

The contest still is undecided although it has been a week since Michigan's 1,370,000 voters went to the polls to elect a governor.

Young Governor Williams moved into the lead again yesterday as a result of the latest returns found in the state's 83 counties.

Williams' latest lead of some 900 votes is the biggest margin he has held over Republican candidate Harry F. Kelly.

The GOP claimed the gubernatorial victory last Wednesday when Kelly held a lead of some 6,000 votes. Williams congratulated Kelly on the "apparent victory" but said he would withhold final comment pending the official canvass.

The state board of canvassers will have official tabulations from all the counties by Thursday. The official loser is expected to start appeals for a recount when the official state-wide canvass is completed by the week-end.

Sen. Russell Not To Accept Majority Post

ATLANTA, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The Atlanta Constitution today quoted Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), as saying "the atom bomb may be used on some Chinese cities."

Sen. Russell is slated to take over the chairmanship of the powerful armed services committee in January, succeeding Maryland's Millard B. Tydings, who was defeated in the elections last week.

The newspaper quoted the senator as saying:

"It's not out of the question (to use the A-bomb on Chinese cities). If things get serious, we may have to."

Russell also announced he will not accept the post of senate majority leader, saying:

"I feel I can do more for the people of Georgia and the nation by maintaining an independent position as chairman of the armed forces committee."

There are more than twice as many automobiles in use in the United States as there are bicycles.

Numbers Raid Made On Chicken Coop

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—(INS)—State police last night raided a nearby Robinson township "chicken coop" where they arrested two men and a woman and confiscated $15,000 in numbers slips.

Sgt. John Helfenstein said Joseph Thompson, 33, McKees Rocks; John Marchese, 42, Verona, and Erna Dalcin, 29, Pittsburgh, will appear before a nearby Dormont justice of the peace to face charges of operating a lottery.

Police said the eight by ten feet chicken coop was equipped with electric lights, adding machines and an old-fashioned coal stove.

The raid was part of a state police investigation into rackets in Allegheny county and is in conjunction with a probe of Pittsburgh and the county by the state attorney general's office.

Change Enlistments In Regular Army

The US Army and US Air Force recruiting station announced today a change in the periods of enlistment in the regular army.

In addition to regular enlistments for three, four, five or six years, male applicants between 19 and 26 years, who have not served more than one year in the armed forces prior to June 24, 1948, or more than 90 days between December 7, 1941, and September 12, 1945, may enlist for a period of 21 months.

Also applicants who have completed a one-year enlistment in the army of the United States may enlist in the regular army for a two-year period.

FREDERICK, Md., Nov. 14.—(INS)—Intensive investigation by army intelligence is expected today in the death of Lt. Col. Harold J. Isbell, commandant of nearby Camp Detrick, the army's bacteriological warfare research center.

Isbell was found shot to death in his automobile near the camp. He was shot with a .45 caliber service automatic which was found in his right hand.

Authorities said, however, that they knew of no reason for the officer to take his own life. He had been reported in good spirits shortly before his death, and only last week was promoted from major to lieutenant colonel.

Extension Of Marshall Plan May Be Asked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—President Truman may ask Congress for a three or four-year extension of the Marshall plan and increased "point four" aid to underdeveloped countries.

This possibility became evident after White House publication of economic aid recommendations by Presidential Adviser and former Army Secretary Gordon Gray.

As a supplement to military aid already planned, Gray proposed continuation of the multi-billion dollar European economic aid program for "another three or four years" and recommended that 1.1 to 1.3 billions be provided annually for the improvement of backward nations.

Endorsement by Truman
Mr. Truman immediately endorsed Gray's foreign policy objectives—to thwart communism and promote greater political unity and self-help—and said the report will be drawn upon "in developing appropriate administrative action and legislative recommendations."

Gray, who last March was directed to draft a coordinated foreign economic program, said it would be premature to let the Marshall Plan expire on July 1, 1952, as now scheduled.

He also recommended that:

Also recommended
1. Backward regions should be provided between 600 to 800 million dollars a year—half to be supplied by the world bank and the rest by the government's Export-Import Bank.

2. Grants ranging up to 500 million a year should be extended to backward areas for several years when their development and technical assistance projects "cannot be soundly financed by loans."

3. The Export-Import Bank's Lending Authority should be increased from 3.5 to give billion dollars and Congress should guarantee private investments in backward nations.

4. A special government agency should be set up to handle and coordinate all foreign economic aid programs, and the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act should be continued for another four years.

Students Have Principal Roles In Union Play

Phyllis Phillips

Kenny McPheeters

Principal roles in the Union High Junior-Senior play, "Beauty and the Beast," are being taken by Phyllis Phillips and Kenny McPheeters.

The three act comedy by William Davidson is to be presented in the Union High auditorium on Friday, November 17, at 8:15 p. m. Phyllis portrays Ginny Allen in the play. Ginny is a "brain" and akin to a child wonder. In addition she is beautiful, and very easily gets into all kinds of "jams" just to prove to Beef that she really isn't so smart after all.

Miss Phillips is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phillips of King avenue. She is a member of the Utopia staff, Y-Teens, chorus, Union High news, cheerleaders, and participated in the Forensic contests. She was also in the play, "Mother is a Freshman."

Kenny is Beef Anderson in the play, captain of the football team. He is a young man who wants to help Ginny with "history," not knowing that the child wonder knows it all from Columbus to the present time.

Kenny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. McPheeters of King avenue. He is a member of the varsity football team, varsity basketball team, Utopia staff, Varsity club and Hi-Y.

TO DECLINE SLIGHTLY
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The American Iron and Steel Institute said today that steel industry operations will decline slightly this week from the record level of a week ago.

The institute announced that production in the week beginning today was scheduled at 102 and 7-10ths per cent of theoretical capacity, a decrease of three-tenths of a point from the 103 per cent historic high rate of last week.

Wurtemberg Club Has Initial Meeting

The Wurtemberg Civic association, a newly formed club of that community, will enjoy an old-fashioned social on Thursday evening, November 16 at the Wurtemberg fire hall at 8 o'clock. This is the first activity held by the organization, whose constitution and by-laws were approved at a recent meeting.

The purpose of the association is to promote worthwhile projects in the community. As their first major project the group will start with a playground and recreational center in Wurtemberg.

All adults in the area of Wurtemberg and Perry township may attend the meeting on Thursday. A nominating committee will present the selections for 1951 officers and the assembly will be given the opportunity to elect a staff of officers. Entertainment and a cake walk will also be included in the evening's program.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

Social Activity During Mourning

"When one is wearing mourning what social restrictions should be observed?"

Answer: Such social invitations as to dances, evening theater parties, teas, receptions and afternoon affairs should not be accepted, but it is in good taste to enjoy with a few intimate friends a matinee performance of a more or less serious play or picture, a quiet dinner or luncheon. If such diversion will elevate your spirits, it would be foolish in these modern times to deprive yourself of them. But regardless of your feelings, make a heroic effort to maintain an existence as active as normal and with as many direct personal contacts as before your bereavement.

Question: Could you give me some suggestions for arranging my breakfast room? May I have linoleum on my floor? What kind of furniture should I choose?

Answer: A breakfast room may have a gay character than a dining room. Furniture painted in a bright color will do much toward making this room the cheerful, colorful place that one will enjoy for the morning meal. Breakfast room furniture comes in suites like dining room pieces—table, chairs, china closet and serving table. If your breakfast room is situated in that section of your house in which the morning sun pours profusely, you may properly place, harmonizing draperies on your windows—plain material, chintz or gingham. If the sun does not reach this room until late in the day, glass curtains of a thin white or a cream material will be more satisfactory.

Question: What are the correct pronunciations of: comparable and hospitable?

Answer: Com-par-able on the first syllable. Hos-pit-able (emphasis on the first syllable).

Late Atwater Kent's Belongings Sold

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The Bel-Air estate and home furnishings of the late Atwater Kent, millionaire radio manufacturer and fabulous Hollywood party giver, were sold at auction. The land making up the estate was put on the block in parcels ranging from slightly less than an acre to two and a half acres.

Five parcels were bought at prices ranging from $8,000 to $26,000. The latter figure was paid by P. H. Honback for two acres that included the estate's swimming pool and tennis court.

William D. Paley paid $10,500 for a one-and-a-half-acre parcel. A bid of $45,000 was made for the 39-room mansion and three acres but the sale was not completed.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS SATTELL

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The best children's glove-fashion story this year is a furry tale.

The newest in mittens for moppets is a fluffy, novelty hand warmer called the "puppet mitt." It's a mitten with a face on the palm and fur on the back.

Just under the laughing faces painted on the fabric palm-side are glove fingers for the thumb and pinkie—and the thumb and little finger in action form "arms" for the puppet face.

The white fur on the backside of the mitt is fluffy enough to peek around the palm-side like a halo of hair for the face.

"Puppet mitts" are being featured by their designer as the "mittens that's also a toy."

Health Of Nine Democratic Senators Vital To Party

By WILLIAM THEIS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The good health of nine Democratic senators is now a matter of special concern to administration leaders who will hold only a narrow margin of control in the new congress.

Forty-nine Democrats and 47 Republicans will compose the senate which convenes Jan. 3.

The death of any two of the nine in question would throw control of the senate to the GOP because all nine now represent states with Republican governors who would fill the vacancy by appointment.

Loss of one Democrat would create a 49-48 tie in the senate but Vice President Barkley's vote would assure continued Democratic control.

All but three of the nine Democrats from GOP-bossed states are past 60 years of age. The three "youngsters" are Sens. McMahon and Benton of Connecticut, who are 47 and 50, respectively, and Sen. Magnuson of Washington, who is 45.

Three of the senators are in their 70's.

Seven of the Republican governors were elected or re-elected in Tuesday's voting; the eighth Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington, was elected in 1948 for a four-year term.

Nine Who Are Important

Here are the nine Senators whose tenure is important to the Democrats:

Sen. Carl Hayden, 73, of Arizona.

Sen. Pat McCarran, 74, of Nevada.

McCarran's state elected Charles Russell, Republican, to succeed Gov. Vail Pittman, Democrat.

Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, 72, of New York. Here Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican, was elected by an overwhelming majority.

Sen. Dennis Chavez, 62, of New Mexico. This state elected its first GOP governor in 18 years, Edwin L. Mechem.

Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, 66, of Wyoming, Republican. Frank A.

Barrett was elected governor in Wyoming to succeed Democrat Gov. A. G. Crane.

Steel Price Boost Indicated When Wage Talks End

CLEVELAND, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Magazine Steel said that indications point to a five-to-eight-dollar a ton increase in steel prices once current wage talks are concluded.

The National Metalworking Trade Publication added that possible early application of price controls by Washington may hurry up the determination of steel wage and price policies.

However, the magazine pointed out, there was no sign last week that a wage settlement was imminent.

October ingot production established a new record of 8,718,978 or 102 per cent of capacity, Steel reported.

The magazine added: "The steel mills last week pushed production to the highest level ever attained in history, the estimated national ingot rate jumping 4.5 points to 103 per cent of capacity."

"This is equivalent to 1,986,600 net tons of steel."

The publication credited the increase almost entirely to settlement of a wildcat strike at Bethlehem Steel's Lackawanna mill.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By F. R. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

"Your Sister's in Charge."

"I'm going downtown for the afternoon. Marianne, you're in charge of Timothy. And Timmy, you do what your sister tells you."

Mrs. Marshall leaves her "happy little family" with these clear-cut directions. Probably most of us have followed a similar plan now and again. As our children grow older, we feel comfortable about letting them tend the younger members of the family.

In many instances, things work out well. But it's a risky proposition if it's used too often. Marianne may have planned an afternoon with the rest of the girls on the block and here she is stuck with little brother.

Nor does Timmy relish the idea of being told what to do by sister. "You're not my mother!" is his reaction. And then the fun begins.

Brothers and sisters can learn to get along well together. But if we place them in command of one another time after time, we're stacking the cards against the development of a harmonious relationship. It's really expecting a great deal.

—more than is reasonable—when we give one child authority over another.

Only if we're sure that there is a warm, friendly attitude between them, and the older one won't feel the need to "boss," is it justifiable to leave a child in charge.

Marie Wilson To Plan For Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The turbulent marriage of box-on screen and radio actress Marie Wilson and Alan Nixon appeared today to be in its latest and last separation.

The comedienne, who has made a career of portraying the beautiful but dumb blonde, has consulted an attorney about a divorce. She plans to leave for Las Vegas, Nev., on Thursday to establish residence.

The break between her and Nixon was kept secret until the close Saturday night of the stage play, "Three Out of Four," in which they had been appearing at the Circle theater.

Anti-Subversive Law To Get Before Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The Supreme Court on Monday opened the way for its first consideration of the nation's anti-subversive law. The high bench ordered that a naturalization case involving a German national alleged to have been a Nazi be given a new consideration in a lower court in the light of the law, passed by Congress this summer.

Following this procedure the case will return to the high bench for a final ruling.

Involved in the case is a Dallas, Tex., cotton merchant, Heinrich F. G. H. Moisen, who came to the United States in 1925 and later married a native American.

The government charged that Nazi party records seized by the Army in Germany showed that Moisen had joined the Nazi party in 1935 and that before U. S. entry in World War II he wrote letters praising German victories in the conflict.

Moisen disclaimed actual Nazi party membership and challenged procedures in which he was denied naturalization but the high court chose to inject the so-called McCarran act in the case.

The new law bars aliens of present or former totalitarian affiliations from entering or becoming citizens of the United States.

College Girls Want Love, Husband And Children, Surveys Shows

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 14.—(INS)—A year-long survey of the "social climate" at Vassar College concluded today that the girls want love, a husband and children.

Ninety-five per cent of the students said in replies to questionnaires that they want to be married and have children before they are 30.

One-third said they hoped to be married within two years of graduation and 23 per cent already were engaged.

In 1948, the Sultan of Cameroun had 200 wives, and the number was being steadily increased.

Mt. Jackson Class Prepares To Stage Play

One of the events on the Mt. Jackson school calendar is the senior class play to be presented on Friday evening, November 17. "Clementine," dramatized by Anne Coulter Martins and William Davidson, from the book by Peggy Goodin, has been chosen by the class for its production.

The play takes place in Hooterville, where Clementine's father is mayor. Clementine, better known as "Butch," is a tomboy of 16 and star of the Hooterville football team. She thinks that boys are something to tackle while playing football. Not heeding her mother's advice, she will have nothing to do with boys and parties.

Abe Carter, the handyman, is the person to whom Butch tells her troubles. Jane Ann, Butch's friend, is always finding out the latest gossip and telling it to everyone while Kathy, Clem's other friend, is the perfect example of how a model daughter should act. Pete, Hank and Tubby are three of the teenage gang who all have a crush on Kathy.

Miss Prunella Pringle, an "old maid" of Hooterville, is always keeping Mr. and Mrs. Kelley in hot water by making them pay for windows that Butch breaks when she plays football.

When Clementine's adventures are over she suddenly discovers that she has changed from a tomboy into an attractive young lady. The play is being coached by Miss A. Martha Matthews and Miss Ann Paton.

The cast includes: Clementine Kelley, a tomboy, Shirley Rice; Mary Kelley, her mother, Mary Lou Howard; Gerald Kelley, her father, Bill Knowlson; Bertha, the maid, Leona Fox; Abe Carter, the handyman, Paul Walters; Hank Matthews, Clem's pal, Lawrence Julian; Pete, a ladies man, Jim Trotter; Tubby, who has hay fever, John Kusnierzyk; Kathy, who has discovered boys, Shirley Wigley; Jane Ann, a little gossip, Virginia Brandt; Ann McNeil, a speech teacher, Peggy Crea, and Miss Prunella Pringle, Ann's aunt, Pauline Harmon.

Bevin Rejects Red Proposal For Big Four Negotiations

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—British Foreign Secretary Bevin rejected again today the Soviet proposal for new Big Four negotiations.

Bevin said Britain is always ready to participate in a "sincere attempt to end world tension" but there must be a "real opportunity" for solution.

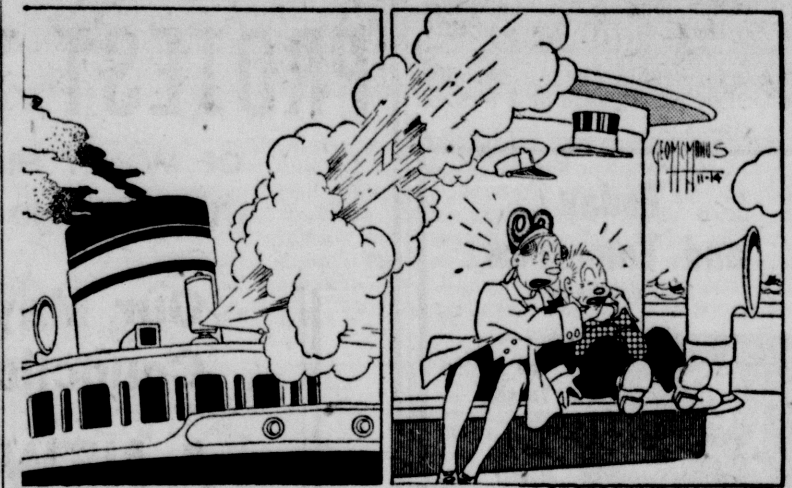

He told the House of Commons the latest Soviet bid "does not afford an adequate basis for dealing with these great problems."

BRINGING UP FATHER

BY GEORGE McMANUS

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 14.—The talking mule saga, "Francis," was the comedy hit of 1950 and the sequel now in preparation appears destined to be the odds-on laugh getter of 1951.

The new picture is "Francis Goes to the Races" and in it the cantankerous mule with a gift of gab tips off his befuddled master (again played by Donald O'Connor) to sure-fire winners and even a seven-horse parlay at Santa Anita racetrack.

The new Francis film will again be directed by Arthur Lubin, identified with the unusual in Hollywood movies what with "Rhubarb" which stars an alley cat next on his slate.

"In these troubled times a little whimsy goes a long way and that is why 'Francis' has rung the bell at the box office," says Lubin. He expects that "Francis Goes to the Races" will be even more popular than the original because the first talking mule movie had a war-time Burma background.

Reducing Exercises
They have Francis up in the hills now trying to trim 100 pounds from him and also to teach him some new tricks for the action scenes at Santa Anita and in various stables in the vicinity.

Francis has been wallowing too deeply in luxury and he has added the 100 surplus pounds out of sheer laziness and because of the thousands of sugar lumps tossed his way by visitors to the studio.

Lubin's discovery rocks the scales at a buxom 845 pounds and he has to trim down to a svelte 750 before the cameras roll on "Francis Goes To The Races."

With his trainer, Jimmy Phillips, Francis will begin a rigid daily routine which includes being galloped alongside a shiny studio limousine, cutting down on his calories at mealtimes and submitting to a noble experiment of reducing a mule with steam baths.

The church pastor, Rev. George Jones, will be chairman of the meetings, with Joseph Jenkins leading the song services. Special music will be featured each evening and a prayer service starting at 7 o'clock.

Price Support For Tobacco Outlined

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The Agriculture Department announced a price support program for 1950 tobacco Monday averaging somewhat higher than for last year's crop.

The Department said higher loan rates under the program for 1950 crop burley, fire-cured, and dark air-cured tobacco reflect an increase in parity prices.

Government loan rates for tobacco are computed on Oct. 1 parity.

Loan rates averaging 45.7 cents a pound for burley, or 90 per cent of parity were announced. The 1949 burley loan rates averaged 40.3 cents.

Rates for fire-cured tobacco will average 34.3 cents per pound, compared with 30.2 last year.

Dark air-cured and Virginia sun-cured tobacco will be supported at an average of 30.5 cents pound, compared with 26.9 cents.

Fire-cured and dark air-cured, including Virginia sun-cured tobacco, are figured at 75 and 66 2/3 per cent of the burley loan rate respectively.

Bamboo has been known to increase 16 inches in height in a day.

City Budget Must Be Passed Or No Pay Days

So Declares Mayor Haven; Budget Plans Are In Deadlock

Mayor John F. Haven today served notice that, unless the city budget for 1951 is arranged, city employees will have no pay days for the first half of January.

He made this statement this morning in view of Councilman Joseph F. Medure "taking a walk" when Council met yesterday. He walked out when colleagues failed to present a second to his resolution which, if adopted, would have called for rent control extension until July 1.

The Mayor added that he is in favor of 11 mills property tax (an increase of one mill), an amusement tax of 10 per cent and a pay boost of $15 for all city employees.

In view of Mr. Medure's declaration yesterday, which in effect said he would be opposed to the increase on property taxation and the proposed amusement tax, budget making was at a standstill today.

Mr. Medure's stand has complicated the compilation of the budget. Previously Mr. Medure had aligned himself alongside Mayor Haven and Councilman Hoyland relative to the property tax boost, the amusement tax and a raise in pay.

Accordingly, the Mayor instructed Mr. Hoyland to make up a budget along this pattern, which would have hanced the budget, the Mayor says.

Situation Changed
But due to Mr. Medure's declaration yesterday, the situation in Council has changed.

Here is the new situation: If Mr. Medure stands pat against a raise in property taxation, the amusement tax and also no raise, the amusement tax can yet be adopted. The Mayor and Messrs. Councilman Hoyland and Schweinsberg unofficially voted for the amusement tax last Friday.

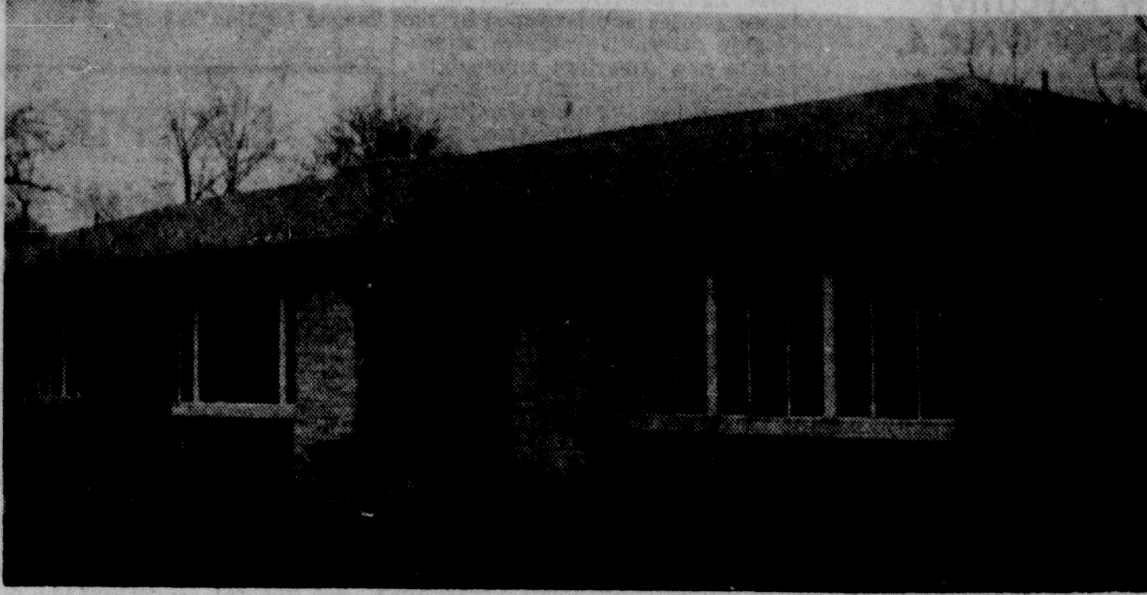

Mr. Medure's stand aligns him with Councilmen Davis and Schweinsberg relative to the property tax boost, which Mr. Davis and Mr. Schweinsberg said they do not favor.

If the 10 mills property tax and the amusement tax plans are adopted, the budget can be met, excepting for a $7,000 shortage, but there will be no increase in pay for city employees ($15 monthly).

Relative to the budget, the Mayor said today there is no work being done on it, adding: "I am waiting for suggestions from councilmen."

Five Are Dead In Home Fire Caused By Oil Explosion

ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 14.—(INS)—A grandmother, her son and grandson fought for their lives in Altoona's Mercy hospital today, suffering from burns caused by kerosene which killed five other members of the family.

The raging flames destroyed the garage-type family home near Duncansville, Pa., last night.

Hospital authorities said William Ebbert, 34; his son, Tommy, 11; and Ebbert's mother, Mrs. Florence Ebbert, 60, were in serious condition.

The list of dead included Mrs. Nellie Ebbert, 30; her 12-year-old son, Neal; and daughters, Evelyn, 9, Joyce, 8, and Elaine, 3.

State Police said Mrs. Nellie Ebbert was pouring kerosene into the wood-burning stove in the center of the garage when she dropped the container.

This set fire to the rug and the resultant vapor exploded, shattering windows and igniting fumes. Flames roared through the room.

Ebbert, a trucker, who was waiting for his wife to prepare supper, tried repeatedly to beat his way through the flames. Several of his fingers were burned off. His son, Tommy, leaped to safety through a window.

Princeton Juniors Will Stage Play

The junior class of the Princeton high school is staging a three-act comedy entitled "Good Gracious Granda" in the school auditorium on November 16 and 17, at 8:15 p.m.

It seems that Henry and George Breckenridge are stranded in their apartment with no money and no hopes of getting any when they receive a telegram with a check enclosed. The money is theirs, providing they keep the sender's young daughters for four days.

When George disguises as a lady there can only mean one thing—trouble! The plot that develops is hilarious and ends in a triple romance. The cast includes Dave Fisher, Bill Cameron, Jo DeGruttola, Elsie Trusel, Eleanor Jones, Alice Dean, Art McDewitt, Jim Fleeger and Leroy Downs.

Union leaders said that longer and more extensive strikes may be expected unless employers meet new sliding wage demands. Today's walkout was called a "demonstration."

Hunt For Two Men Who Abducted Seven-Year-Old Boy

HARRISBURG, Nov. 14—(INS)—Eastern seaboard police were on the alert today for two men who abducted a seven-year-old child slated to be adopted by a central Pennsylvania speedway operator.

The missing boy, Eddie Collins, was abducted yesterday during an outdoor recess at the school near his home at Williams Grove, State Police Sgt. Arthur Poorman reported.

No demands for ransom were reported to authorities.

A 14-state alarm was flashed soon after the disappearance was reported by the man who had initiated the adoption proceedings, Roy Richwine, Jr.

School children said two men bundled the boy into a red maroon Ford bearing Virginia registration plates after promising to show him a dog.

Mrs. Mary Collins, 24, until recently a Harrisburg hotel hostess, hinted that certain relatives may have been involved in the case, according to State Trooper Robert Bruce at the Carlisle sub-station.

Drafting Of 40,000 Asked In January

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—(INS)—The defense department announced today that the army has requested the drafting of 40,000 men during January.

The request brings to 250,000 the total number of draftees asked by the army since the Korean war began.

Previous requests were for 50,000 each in September and October, 70,000 in November and 40,000 in December.

The navy and air force have not asked for any draftees, and the department announcement today said these services "do not plan to place calls for January."

LIONS SELLING NEWS TODAY FOR WELFARE WORK

of community helpfulness, for those who are engaged in these civic projects know that it takes funds to assist those who are not so fortunate through no fault of their own. And if they got no change back they will not complain.

Hundreds of pairs of glasses have been presented to those with failing eyesight through the interest of the Lions Club down through the years. In addition, those who have not been able to afford it, have had operations and hospital treatment at their hands.

Each year, the sightless folks have been guests of the club at a Christmas dinner party, when they were served turkey with all the trimmings, and in addition have received a nice Christmas gift, and been entertained.

Many Are Aided

Last year, the club purchased a ceiling projector for those who are bedfast, together with 35 books, which was presented to the New Castle Free Public Library which loans it out to those who are confined to bed and cannot hold up a book to read.

They also presented a year's subscription in braille of the Readers Digest to a local sightless man.

In addition, they sent two boys to the Y.C.A. camp, subscribed $1,500 to the Jameson memorial and New Castle hospital campaigns, besides giving to the Community Chest, Red Cross, Boy Scouts, milk fund for school children, New Castle Symphony Orchestra. They contributed to the purchase of Green Pennants in the school safety program, and entertained Boy Scout Troop 26 at a Christmas party.

This year, these activities were continued. In addition, contributions were made to the March of Dimes, Heart Campaign, Boy Scout jamboree at Valley Forge, the Cancer fund, gave to the fund to send the junior baseball team to Dayton, donated 235 books to the Margaret Henry Children's home.

Activities Varied

International Councillor Arthur W. Meek, past district governor and past president of the club, pointed out that the success of any club is based on its activities. Some of these carried out by the local club include as its paramount project, sight conservation and help for the blind, interest in the boys and girls of the community, civic improvement, citizenship and patriotism, community betterment, education, health and welfare and safety.

The New Castle Club has been active in spreading Lionism by organizing many new club in the area in the past three years. These include the Little Beaver, Volant, New Bedford, Fredonia, Pulaski, and Stoneboro clubs.

The Lions have grown to be the largest service club organization in the world, membership of 402,841 men distributed among 8,159 clubs located in 29 countries.

Pantherette Club Plans Activities

Election of officers for the Pantherette club will be held on December 5, in the Division street club rooms. These plans were made at a recent meeting with president Mrs. Ralph Lemer in charge.

A Christmas party for members only will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 19, in the club rooms and secret pals will be revealed. Later cards were played.

Serving a tasty lunch later in the evening were: Mrs. A. C. Ricciardi, Mrs. Snatley Litrenta, Mrs. Vario Graziani, Mrs. Ralph Lemer and Mrs. Rocco Litrenta.

November 21, is the next meeting in the club rooms, hostesses to be: Mrs. A. J. Capezio, Mrs. Louis Gaspare, Mrs. Andrew Marape, Mrs. Tony Cooper, and Mrs. Joseph Panella.

correct address or else he may not receive the card intended for him.

While near summer temperatures were experienced a year ago at this period, it turned cold most suddenly and snow fell every day for a period of week, starting November 15, although the mercury did not get down as cold as it has been the past few nights.

Temperatures about the district reached new lows for the season it has been reported to Pa Newc varying from 14 above to 20 degrees above. A Neshaanock avenue resident, employee of The News reported this was 14 on his back porch this morning. Enon Valley recorded 18 degrees while others reported a 20 degree temperature.

One of the largest loads of baled hay seen in recent years moved through the city by truck, Monday afternoon. The hay was piled high on a tractor and semi-trailer and was going east. The cattle "fuel" was the scene of much attention by city residents.

One of the city's older residents and former tipstaff at the Court House, Thomas Hinkson of 913 Dewey avenue will quietly observe his 93rd birthday on Wednesday. Although not as active as formerly, Mr. Hinkson's mind is quite alert and he can discuss readily topics of the day.

Several district ponds are being readied for ice skating when the weather gets sufficiently cold for such outdoor sport. Several days of low temperatures would put a welcome coating of ice on the ponds for the ice skaters. Cascade Park lake always attracts hundreds of skaters annually when skating season is on.

Korean troops, aided by U. S. warships and Marine Corps planes, repulsed a strong enemy attack near the coast.

Smash at Strongholds

On the opposite side of the transpeninsular front, troops of two American divisions smashed to the edges of two key enemy strongholds, Pakchon and Yongbyon. In the center, counter-attacking South Korean units erased a wedge driven across the strategic Kunuri-Tokchon lateral highway.

Just north of these points under United Nations attack, Chinese Red troops were reported stationed in well-prepared defense positions athwart the main roads to Manchuria.

A U. S. First Corps spokesman estimated that three Chinese armies of three divisions each—totalling perhaps 90,000 troops—were massed in front of six UN divisions and one brigade pushing north along the west section of the front.

Spectacular Engagement

One of the war's most spectacular air engagements occurred about midday Tuesday when six Russian-built Mig-15 jets pounced on 20 Superforts escorted by American F-80 jets near the Korean-Manchurian border.

Two of the big B-29s were severely damaged and suffered casualties to their crewmen, but landed at Seoul's Kimpo Airdrome. One of the crippled Superforts veered off the runway and wiped out four parked but unoccupied planes.

The pilot of that bomber had been hit in the leg with a 20mm shell from the cannon of one of the Communist jets. The second Superfort landed without mishap, though it had several wounded aboard and suffered heavy battle damage.

When the Manchurian-based Mig-15s pounced on the B-29s, the escorting F-80s shot stars dropping their wing-tip fuel tanks and roared into the fight.

No American Jets Lost

They failed to shoot down any of the Red jets which sped at 600 mph per hour back over the Yalu river to their Manchurian haven. None of the American jets was lost.

The aerial dogfight was announced by Fifth Air Force Headquarters. Later a Far East Air Forces bulletin said 18 Superforts dropped 140 tons of 1,000-pound bombs on Sinuiju's already battered Yalu bridges Tuesday afternoon.

Ten other B-29s blasted the enemy's military staging area centered on Nanam along the northeast seaboard with 100 tons of explosives. Swarms of land-based and carrier-borne fighter-bombers and fighters struck at enemy troop movements and concentrations in several other areas.

In the ground fighting, U. S. Seventh Infantry Division troops drove within 25 air miles below Manchuria's border in northeast Korea and reached the east side of the prized Pujon (Fusen) hydro-electric reservoir.

These forces moved ahead despite bitter cold in a renewed northward advance aimed at sealing off Korea's bulging northeast corner which adjoins both Red China's Manchuria and the lower tip of Russian Siberia.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout Troop 54 met last Wednesday at Glen-Moore school under the leadership of Mrs. Dale Gardner.

The troop gathered to learn a new song and hear a report on a jamboree held at Ben Franklin.

Miss Patty Grove talked of the jamboree and then the next meeting was set for Nov. 16 at the school.

COMPANY FARE

For company fare add sliced sautéed mushrooms to cooked rice. Green peas, cooked only until they are tender, may also be added. This dish is delicious served with fried chicken and gravy.

U.S. ASKS SPEED IN ACTION ON INVASION

States is anxious to grill them on the Korean intervention.

Right To Proceed

U. S. Deputy representative Ernest A. Gross said that the American delegation feels strongly that the Security Council has every right to proceed immediately with discussion of the six-power resolution of its troops from Korea, assures Peiping that the Manchurian border and Chinese interests in the Yalu river power dam area will be respected, and authorized the U. N. Korean commission to seek a peaceful settlement if contacted by the Mao regime.

Without committing himself on Tibet's appeal to U. N. for help against Communist China's invasion, gross said he had consulted with some other delegates on the question. The Dalai Lama's government described the invasion as unwarranted aggression "reminiscent of the jungle."

Top U. N. officials said the complaint would be circulated to Security Council members as a non-governmental document unless a member nation officially sponsors it. Neither India, Britain nor the United States has shown a desire to do so, which means that Tibet invasion will be shelved.

Name Winners In Parade Saturday

In addition to the names of the float winners listed Monday in connection with the annual Armistice Day parade, Commander George E. Hunt of the New Castle Veterans' Council, today listed the winners of the awards for the veterans organizations having the largest percentage of membership in the parade line-up.

The Reserve Officers association was first, with the Jewish War Veterans second, Perry S. Gaston, American Legion, third, and Catholic War Veterans, post 741, fourth.

The float prizes, as previously announced, went to the Parent-Teachers association, New Castle hospital, Girl Scout troop 26 and Catholic War Veterans, in the order named.

The committee extended its thanks to the city and county officials, police and fire departments, and to all who attended and assisted in making the event a success.

Lions Discuss Club Activities

Representatives of Lawrence County Lions clubs discussed club activities, following a dinner meeting in Pulaski, Monday evening, with the Pulaski club as hosts.

The occasion with the Pulaski club was fathers and sons night, and a fine picture suitable for the young folks was shown.

The clubs voted to sponsor a Green Pennant Safety program throughout the county, and projected a zone meeting for some time in February.

Membership was also discussed and each club will make an effort to add outstanding citizens in its community to the roster of their clubs during the coming year. Sam Rashid, zone chairman, presided at the discussion.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headache and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Up to the early 1800's in England it was a capital offense to cut down cherry trees. One man was hanged for this "crime" in 1814.

Heating costs may be reduced as much as 15 per cent by planting trees around the house as windshields.

PROFESSIONAL KNOWLEDGE—TECHNICAL SKILL

In a College of Pharmacy there are classes in many subjects—Chemistry, Pharmacology, Physiology, Bacteriology, Mathematics, Toxicology, to name a few. And after graduation, the pharmacist must pass rigid State Board examinations to become qualified by law to serve you.

In fact, your pharmacist's education never ends. Through his membership in professional organizations and by reading the publications which reach him regularly, he keeps abreast of the constant improvements in pharmaceutical products and practices.

When he compounds the medicines your physician prescribes, the pharmacist's professional knowledge and technical skill are as much a part of the prescription as are any of its ingredients.

MERCER MEMBERS HEAR SPEAKERS

Mercer class members enjoyed an outstanding program Monday evening when they assembled in Highland United Presbyterian church. The guests were welcomed by A. Kenneth Hemer.

Alfred Owens introduced Mrs. A. N. Bergland and Mrs. J. W. DeGarmo as the speakers. Mrs. DeGarmo visited France, Germany and other European countries, while Mrs. Bergland spent some time in Sweden this summer. Both women made their trips by plane, telling a number of interesting as well as humorous facts about their travels. A question and answer period followed. Pictures and curios were displayed by the speakers.

Mrs. Samuel G. Staats conducted an effective worship period, using "Meditation on the Lord's Prayer," by Grace Noll Crowell, as her theme.

Frank P. Chapin presided at the business session, when Clarence Ruthrauff, chairman of the redecorating committee, told of plans for brightening the classroom.

Grace was offered by Dr. Jennings B. Reid. A seasonal lunch was served at tables decorated in the Thanksgiving motif. Mr. and Mrs. A. Kenneth Hemer, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Owens, Mrs. Samuel G. Staats and Mrs. R. F. Dixon composed the committee of arrangements.

DERAILMENT = SCHOOL HOLIDAY

HERE IS SOME OF THE WRECKAGE of a freight train of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad that piled up in a suburb of the Windy City with unusual results. The wreck was caused by a "hot box" on one of the 57 cars involved in the derailment. The pileup touched off an explosion that shattered the area's water main, and this resulted in school children getting an unscheduled holiday. (International Soundphoto)

"How my mind was changed—when I took the clothes off the line. They felt so soft—as soft as any wash I've ever had with three rinsings. They smelled nice and sweet, and looked so gleaming clean! Why, usually I have to use bleach to get shirts so white."

"I was practically dazzled by the brightness of the colored things... and I was delighted with the way they came up so crisp and fresh with rinsing. No more long, hard washdays for me—I'm washing the easiest, and the best way, now—with No-Rinse Surf."

Near Verdict In Trial For Thefts Of Telephone Coins

MIAMI, Nov. 14.—(INS)—A six-man Miami jury will begin deliberations today to decide the fate of three women accused of packing their brassiers with rolls of coins stolen from Southern Bell Telephone Co. counting rooms.

The prosecution and defense offered only what was considered the most essential testimony yesterday—first day of the trial—and the trio of women did not take the stand.

Oral confessions which the girls made to police and newsmen after they were first arrested were admitted as evidence though the defendants had recanted and denied they were guilty of stealing.

In the confessions, 21-year-old Marie Orr and Mrs. Betty Corrigan, 23, charged with grand larceny, admitting loading their brassiers with quarters and transferring them to Mrs. Billie McNabb, 27, to be smuggled out of the building. Mrs. McNabb was accused as an accessory.

Defense attorneys produced a pay telephone and rifled it with a coat-hanger in an effort to show the money might have been stolen before it reached the phone company office.

Make sure NOW... on the blueprint

Plan all the way, Mr. Homebuilder... and besides outlets, remember to include big enough wire and sufficient circuits to get full use of electricity in your home.

Outlets are important so that electricity will be convenient to use. Plan for every appliance and all the lights you need.

Wires must be big enough to carry the amount of electricity being used in our homes today and in years to come. Get full heat from toasters and other cooking appliances... get full brilliance from lights.

Individual circuits are needed for heavy duty equipment. Light circuits for the kitchen and for widely separated sections in the house should be separate.

Plan for all three to be sure of adequate wiring in your future home... or in the home you have now.

Rickey Intimates Billy Meyer Through As Pirates' Manager

Lou Boubreau May Land Job Within Next 10 Days

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Bill Meyer's status as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates will remain in doubt until the major leagues' annual winter meeting next December in St. Petersburg, Fla.

That all Branch Rickey, the Pirates' general manager, would guarantee newsmen following a three-hour meeting between him and Meyer yesterday in Pittsburgh.

Mind Not Made Up

Rickey said he hasn't made up his mind yet and added: "I must be careful what I say or my summation of my words could be in error. . . . Bill and I got along fine, but the managerial job is open and will be until I study it for at least 10 days after the Cincinnati meetings are over."

Rickey, Meyer and Roy Hamey, assistant general manager, will attend the draft meeting in Cincinnati Thursday following conferences among the three of them today and tomorrow.

Boudreau Given Release

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Lou Boudreau, a ballplayer without a club for the first time in 12 years, began looking today for a new job in the Major Leagues.

The 33-year-old shortstop, dismissed last week after nine years as player-manager of the Cleveland Indians, requested and received his unconditional release from the club last night. He joined Cleveland—the only Major League club he has played with—in 1939. He led them to a world championship—the first in 28 years—in 1948.

Seeks New Job

Boudreau explained from his home in suburban Harvey, Ill., that he asked for the release because "my hands were tied and I couldn't negotiate as long as Cleveland held my contract." He added:

"Not that I have any future plans, but I'd like to be at liberty to make a deal if one arises. I know I can play at least three or four more years, but shopping for a place to play is new to me."

Cleveland president Ellis Ryan said the Indians "lost an opportunity to make a trade for Boudreau" in giving him his release but agreed because "we are anxious to cooperate with Lou in doing what he considers best for himself."

No Pirate Offer

Ryan said in Cleveland last Friday when he announced that Al Lopez was taking over as manager that the Indians had received an offer from another club which wanted Boudreau as a player.

Boudreau disclosed last night he has not talked with any representatives of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who reportedly are considering a managerial change from Billy Meyer.

The stocky shortstop guided the Indians to the first division six times in nine years and has a lifetime batting average of .298.

Dartmouth Cards

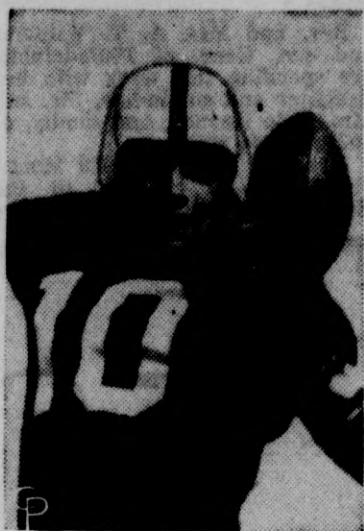

Army For 1951

HANOVER, N. H., Nov. 14.—(INS)—Dartmouth today included Army as one of its football opponents next year.

Dartmouth Athletic Director William H. McCarter said the Indians will meet the Cadets at West Point on October 13, 1951, and added that the schedule next season also listed Fordham and Syracuse as new opponents.

The three newcomers replace Holy Cross, Lehigh, and Michigan, whose teams the Indians met this season.

Five Seeking Minnesota Job

Bernie Bierman Has Resigned

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 14.—(INS)—Five football coaches from widely scattered sections of the nation were unofficially reported under consideration today as successors to University of Minnesota mentor Bernie Bierman who announced he will resign at the close of the present season.

All of those mentioned said, however, they have not been approached by go-ahead officials and one—Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma—said he wants to remain where he is.

The others are Dallas Ward, Colorado; Clarence (Biggie) Munn, Michigan State; Lefty James, Cornell; and Henry Frka, Tulane.

Meanwhile, Minnesota officials expressed surprise at Bierman's announcement yesterday and Athletic Director Ike Armstrong said, "He can stay on in the Athletic Department here in any capacity he wishes."

New Castle High's 1950 Grid Season One Of Most Colorful In History Of School

The New Castle high school football story for the 1950 season is one of the most colorful in the history of the school.

Most of the regulars that helped the Red Hurricanes win two consecutive WPIAL championships were gone, and coaches were forced to try and mold a mixture of veterans and green hands into a winning combination.

The backfield was pretty well set as the team poked training but the line was still untried, with only tackles Don "Bucky" Tate and Dante DeFalco back from the '49 team.

This green line failed to hold up under a pounding by a strong Carrick high school team, and the Red Hurricanes went down to defeat by a 14-7 score in their opening game.

The Pittsburgh team's forward wall opened huge holes in the middle of the New Castle line, and the New Castle fans returned to the stadium with the conviction that this year's team just didn't have it.

Next came the Canes first WPIAL encounter with Latrobe. They also dropped this one 7-6, with the visitors making most of their gains around the terminal positions.

A bar pass from center set up Latrobe's first score and prevented New Castle from making its extra point in closing minutes of play.

Left end Bill Boak was injured on the second play of the game, helping pave the way for the Latrobe win. Ray Latsko was also still out of uniform due to an injury suffered in the Carrick game.

Things indeed looked bad for the Red Hurricanes. Their next game was a breather with John touchdowns up, by both local and McKeesport fans.

That football game will long be remembered by New Castle high school football fans. The Canes played like a championship team and were never headed as they emerged with a well-earned 20-0 victory.

After that game the McKeesport newspaper claimed that it wasn't true what they had heard about the New Castle team earlier in the season.

Next came one of the most thrilling games of the season with the Farrell Night Riders. The fast, snappy Farrell team built up a 13-0 first half lead against the Canes and looked like a shoe in as the team left for the dressing rooms at the end of the half.

The Red Hurricanes came out in that second half and pounded their way to three touchdowns and a 20-13 win in one of the finest comebacks ever seen at Taggart stadium.

After that came easy wins over Erie Academy and Erie Strong Vincent and a hard-fought mud battle at Aliquippa with the Canes again coming from behind to win.

New Castle wound up its 1950 season at Turtle Creek last week end with a stunning 44-6 victory. The Red Hurricanes hit hard and fast in their final encounter of the season and proved that they were a truly great outfit.

McKeesport was favored to win this game from anywhere to two

Adams and even when they won 34-6, they were unimpressive.

A trip to Sharon netted a 13-6 win, and the New Castle forward wall seemed to be tightening up. That game might have been a run away for the Canes had it not been for fumbles inside the Sharon 10-yard line.

Then came the big game with McKeesport, undefeated in four 1950 starts, and anxious to make up for the 8-7 loss to New Castle in the championship game of 1949.

McKeesport was favored to win this game from anywhere to two strong national recognition will appear on the 27 game basketball schedule of Westminster college this season, Coach Grover C. Washabaugh has announced.

Newcomers on the Titan schedule include Duquesne University, St. Bonaventure, Arizona State, the University of Detroit, George Peppardine, Maryland State, and Washington & Jefferson college.

The University of Pittsburgh, Upsilon, St. Joseph's, Carnegie Tech, St. Francis, and several district teams that appeared on the Titan schedule last year, will meet the Westminster quintet again this year.

Fifteen home contests are scheduled. Westminster will open with Allegheny here December 9 and close with Washington & Jefferson here March 8.

Other home games will pit the Titans against George Peppardine, Maryland State, Arizona State, Duquesne, the University of Detroit, Upsilon, the University of Pittsburgh, Carnegie Tech, Geneva college, Bethany college, Grove City college, Tech college, and Waynesburg college.

Elks Hosts At Football Dance

George Patterson, chairman of the entertainment committee of Lodge No. 69, B.P.O.E., said this morning that the Elks lodge would play host at a dance to members of the New Castle High School grid squad Friday night in the Elks ballroom.

OUT OF CLASS

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Dr. Eddie Baker, the Carnegie Tech football coach who seldom permits disappointment to affect his sense of humor, admitted his team was playing out of its class in meeting Lehigh during the week end.

MITCHELL WINS NOD

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Verne Mitchell, 190, Detroit, won a split decision last night over San Francisco's Andy Walker, 195, in a 10-round bout at Winterland.

Two Games Will Be Played Friday

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Playoff games will decide WPIAL class A and B champions Friday night.

A meeting of the league's football committee last night in Pittsburgh arranged for Canonsburg and New Brighton high schools to meet at nearby Dormont stadium for the class A championship, while Aspinwall and Masontown are scheduled to meet in Clairton, Pa., for the class B crown.

How They Finished According to the league's Gardner point system, contenders finished in the following order:

Class AA—Butler, 126 points.

Class A—Canonsburg, 134 points. New Brighton, 134 points. Derry Township, 118 points. Leechburg, 118 points.

Class B—Aspinwall, 139 points. Masontown, 131 points. Jefferson Township, 126 points. Moon Township, 123 points. Bell Township, 123 points. Freedom, 120 points.

Class C—Ellsworth, 117.

New Castle Will Use Man-To-Man Type Of Defense

New Castle floor coach, John Milanovich will undoubtedly make many changes in the style of New Castle basketball, but probably one of the most surprising and also gratifying will be the switch to man-to-man defense.

Milanovich has indicated that he will instruct his charges in both zone and man-to-man play, but that he will attempt to use the latter.

Names still mean nothing in relation to those looking impressive or unimpressive, because the football squad will increase the hopeful from 25 to over 50 or 60.

The emphasis in practices has been on the individual, which means that Milanovich has been using only two, three, and four man teams.

The history of bowling can be traced back 7,000 years.

Truman Will See Army Play Navy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(INS)—President Truman is expected to attend the annual Army-Navy football classic this year as usual.

The White House said today that, barring unforeseen developments, the President will go to Philadelphia, on Saturday, December 2, to attend the game.

Mr. Truman has attended this football classic every year since he has been President. He will go by special train to Philadelphia the morning of December 2, and return to Washington after the game.

Surely the best of the college teams could not hold up against the best of the professionals.

MONT HYDE is the first New Castle hunter reported to have executed a "double" on grouse this season. The grouse "rose" fast but he brought them down.

Reports are current that efforts will be made to have Governor-Elect Fine of Pennsylvania use his influence to have a lake created in Lawrence county. For years a lake has been the dream of local sportsmen. . . . No doubt, such a project will be aired when the Lawrence County Sportsman's association meets November 21. . . . November 29 will find the wrestlers again cawing in The Arena, according to the Jefferson A.C. As yet it is unknown how many men and women will flop about the canvas. . . . Fireman Suicides
After Arrest On Charge Of Arson

NASHUA, N. H., Nov. 14.—(INS)—A 32-year-old fireman accused of setting at least five fires in Nashua in recent months killed himself last night shortly after his wife was jailed on an arson charge.

Police said the husband and wife set fires "to impress each other," in addition to which the fireman, Oswald Laroche, "wanted to be a hero" by being the first to discover and put out the fires he himself started.

Mrs. Laroche, 25, collapsed in her cell when informed of the suicide of her husband of a year. She is specifically charged with setting a recent fire in the couple's own apartment. Laroche killed himself by turning on the gas jets in the apartment. He left several notes which authorities did not publish.

Board Finishes New Castle Vote

Return Board Expedites Work

With the vote cast in New Castle officially tabulated the official return board is making good time upon the recapitulation of the vote cast in this county on Tuesday, November 7.

The board has finished the eight wards of New Castle and has started upon the townships and boros. The vote this year is not a difficult one to tabulate and the margin of error thus far has been small.

Usually there are minor human errors to correct but in the past thirty years there have been but few cases of corrupt ballot box "jobbing." The election boards of Lawrence county give you an honest count, but being composed of human beings, the boards make honest errors at times.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED

Jack Callahan received a suspended sentence before the Lawrence county court Monday morning, pending his induction into the armed services and restoring $45 which was stolen. He was up on a charge of robbery of a gasoline station attendant.

DESERTION-NON-SUPPORT

Judge John G. Lamoree held Desertion and Non-Support court on Monday.

Motorist Steals Spare Tire Under Guise Of Aiding

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 14.—(INS)—A motorist had a flat tire in a Minneapolis suburb today and was jacking up the wheel when an automobile stopped and the driver got out.

Myrlin Fishbauger, anticipating help at his task, said: "Boy, you're a real samaritan."

"I'll get the spare tire out," said the "samaritan."

He did—and sped away after tossing the tire in the back seat of his own car.

Would Hold Russia To Account For Any Satellite Aggression

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 14.—(INS)—Earle Cocke, Jr., American Legion national commander, urged holding Soviet Russia to strict account for any aggression by her satellite nations.

Cocke, in an address before the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, specifically proposed that the United States "hold Moscow responsible for any further aggression and use all of our strength to destroy the breeding place of world trouble."

Cocke added that this country must build sufficient strength to "make such a threat good."

The Legion head suggested: Immediate mobilization of our armed forces to full war strength.

A tough policy toward all Communists and traitors at home.

A full realization and patriotic willingness to bear the burden of sacrifice which this "operation survival" requires.

Curtailment or elimination of every possible public and private non-essential expenditure.

RESEARCH

ANN ARBOR—(INS)—The Kresge foundations recent donation of three million dollars for the construction of a medical research center at the University of Michigan will enable the university to continue its research projects on a greater scale.
